1. What are some social barriers or divisions that exist in our culture today? How do you break the social norms and see people as God's creation and not through a cultural stereotype?
2. What is interesting to you about Jesus' interactions with this woman? How does Jesus relate to this woman with grace?
3. Why did the disciples question Jesus about talking to this woman?
4. Are there times when you can identify with the disciples' response? What barriers do you face in seeing people come to know Jesus?
