

Who is My Neighbor?

Text: Luke 10:25-37

Purpose: To breakdown the stereotypes we can set with people and to see them as valuable works from God.

Opening Question: Who's the best next door neighbor you've ever had?

Read and Discuss: Luke 10:25-29

1. In what practical ways do you live out loving your neighbor as yourself?
2. What do you think are some of the roadblocks people experience in loving their neighbor?
3. How would you define who your neighbor is?

Read and Discuss: Luke 10:30-37

4. In what ways can you identify with the Priest and the Levite in the story? In what ways can you identify with the Samaritan?
5. What are some challenges to knowing the law (Love your neighbor as yourself...) and living it out?
6. How does God's continued love for us allow us to break through social walls to love others?
7. Who is one neighbor that needs to experience God's love from you this week? What does that look like?
