

Covered In Dust-Listening in Prayer

Text: Jeremiah 33:3; John 10:27; Psalm 46:10; Psalm 105:4

Purpose: How to listen, discern and respond to the voice/promptings of God in prayer.

Opening Question: Are you a better communicator or a better listener?

Read and Discuss: Jeremiah 33:3; John 10:27

1. What are some of the ways that God speaks to people in the Bible? What are some of the ways that God has spoken to you?
2. What kinds of things does God reveal through His speaking? What has He revealed to you?

Read and Discuss: Psalm 46:10; Psalm 105:4

3. What about being still and being quiet can be difficult for you?
4. How does noise and distractions keep you from hearing what God might be saying? What place and time is best for you to limit distractions and noise?
5. What kinds of fears or hesitations might keep you from hearing God's voice? What about God and His characteristics helps you to trust His voice?
6. How do you follow up when you hear God's voice or promptings? Is there currently something that God has been revealing to you that you have been putting off?
7. How do you discern if what you are hearing is from God or Satan or yourself? What parameters do you use to make sure it is God's leading?
8. How can your small group help you hear God's voice?
