

Jacob In-Laws

Text: Genesis 30:22-30; 43-44

Purpose: In relationships, we can act out of fear and hurt people. Here Jacob deceives Laban (his in-laws) by running away with his grandkids and family. Laban and Jacob mend their relationship and are an example of God by making a covenant?

Opening Question: What's the best thing you like about your In-Laws

Read and Discuss: Genesis 30:25-43

1. How would you feel if you were Laban? What is the motivator for Jacob running away?
2. How do you deal with conflict in your family? Or how was conflict dealt with growing up in your family?
3. What do you think Jacob is afraid of? How might he have handled this better?
4. How do Laban and Jacob resolve their differences?
5. What way do you find yourself resolving conflict? What works the best?
6. Is there a family conflict you could pray about resolving?
