

Covered In Dust-Communicator of God's Word

Text: Proverbs 18:21; James 3:9-12; Psalm 43; Deuteronomy 4:6-8; Colossians 3:16

Purpose: To learn to speak the Bible to ourselves first, then talk about the Bible at home and then to counsel/teach/encourage others.

Opening Question: What is the most life giving word that your mom or mother figure in your life gave?

Read and Discuss: Proverbs 18:21; James 3:9-12

1. Why are words so powerful? How can they destroy? How can they build up?

Read and Discuss: Psalm 43

2. What would hold us back from being honest with God about our emotions, disappointments, and hurts?
3. How can our emotions lead us away from the truths of the Bible?

Read and Discuss: Deuteronomy 4:6-8

4. When do you talk about God and faith at home? If you have kids or grandkids how can you find more ways to talk about the Bible at home?
5. How do children learn about the Bible from parents? How does God's grace help parents to raise kids who know and live out the Bible?

Read and Discuss: Colossians 3:16

6. What does Paul mean when he says we should "admonish one another"?
7. How can we use the Bible to encourage one another? How do you want someone to lift you up by using the Bible?
8. What should be the result of sharing the Bible's truths with others?